

24th May 2022

Dear parents, carers and students,

As we move towards the end of term 5 a quick reminder that Friday 27th May is the last day of term and will be a normal full teaching day with students departing at the usual time of 3pm.

Term 6 commences on Monday 6th June which is a week 1. During the half term holiday, we have many and various revision sessions for students who are approaching exams- please could I remind students to register with teachers if they attend these sessions and that the canteen is not open during the holiday.
