

A-Level - AQA Economics

In Economics you are completing an A-Level. The approach to Economics is to apply economic theory to support analysis of current economic problems and issues, and encourage analysis of the interrelationships between microeconomics and macroeconomics. The content takes into account fundamental advances and changes in economic ideas such as behavioural economics, importance of financial markets and development economics. There are 3 exams in the final year.

The following tasks will take you approx. 15 hours and are due for submission Sept 1st 2020.
